WOMEN WHO ARE ALWAYS TIRED

May Find Help in This Letter.

Swan Creek, Mich.—"I cannot speak too highly of your medicine. When through neglect or overwork I get run down and my appetite is poor and I have that weak, languid, always tired feeling, I get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it builds me up, gives me strength, and restores me to perfect health again. It is truly a great blessing to women, and I cannot speak too highly of it. I take pleasure in recommending it to others."—Mrs. ANNIE CAMERON, R.F.D., No. 1, Swan Creek, Michigan.

Another Sufferer Relieved. Hebron, Me.—"Before taking your medicine I was all run down, discouraged and had female weakness. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and used the Sanative Wash, and find today that I am an entirely new woman, ready and willing to do my housework now, where before taking your medicine it was a dread. I try to impress upon the minds of all ailing women I meet the benefits they can derive from your medicines."—Mrs. CHARLES ROWE, R.F.D., No. 1, Hebron, Maine.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Like the beverage that made a certain Wisconsin city famous, Aubrey's hotel is destined to make Hauula famous. A few years ago Hauula would be referred to as "just a place" on the windward side of Oahu, but with the advent of Mine Host Aubrey, who saw the future possibilities of the place as a resort, it is fast coming to the front as "the place" on Oahu where every convenience of the modern hotel is found, where the best bathing beach on this island is located, where the best or equal to the best meals, of wholesome, home-cooked, home-raised products, are served, completely sheltered from winds, and

ROADS ON OAHU NOT REALLY SO BAD AS SAID—ONE STRETCH VERY POOR

Hotel Aubrey a Delightful Spot to Spend Quiet Week-end for Tired Businessman

A certain paragraph in one of the Promotion Committee's folders on Oahu says: "The island offers many attractions to motorists. With few exceptions the roads are excellent in all seasons. Most of them are macadamized, while the earth roads are good except in very rainy weather."

What the earth roads are in very rainy weather can only be told in the language of the farmer or autoist who is compelled to use them, and to get the expressions of the aforesaid farmers and autoists one should be supplied with a shorthand writer who uses the system that is supposed to be employed by the recording angel.

But don't let anybody think for a moment that all the roads on Oahu are in a state of bottomless mud after a shower or two. I am more than pleased to state that in my travels about this island I have found that the roads, leading in all directions from the metropolis, compare more than favorably with the county roads of California.

There is but one really bad piece of road on this island. There may be lots of vehicle-drivers laugh at that statement, but the proof of the pudding is in the eating thereof. How many of these local autoists have ever attempted to drive a machine from Truckee to Sacramento, or between any other two distant points on the Coast that are over ten miles from some big city? I refer to an ordinary country road such as one finds on this island, and not a ten- or fifteen-mile boulevard connecting two cities.

I have stated that there is but one really bad piece of road on this island, and that piece I found last Saturday in making a trip via the Pail to Aubrey's hotel at Hauula, on the windward side. It is the stretch of what is supposed to be the belt road or round-the-island road between Waihole and Hauula. The southern two-thirds of this piece of really bad road is a good deal worse than really bad; it is, when subject to a couple of hours' rain, practically bottomless, and a disgrace to the island and a shame on the people. The northern small portion of the stretch referred to is of a sandy formation, and even when in a bad state of weather, a bottom of some sort can be reached.

Every so often some of the supervisors and others interested take a trip to the vicinity of this "really bad" stretch of road, look the situation over and return, leaving the tourist to condemn, and the autoists and farmers to curse the whole outfit that has anything to do with the repair of roads till the supervisors make another trip as far as they can go without knocking the self-starter from their machine.

Like the beverage that made a certain Wisconsin city famous, Aubrey's hotel is destined to make Hauula famous. A few years ago Hauula would be referred to as "just a place" on the windward side of Oahu, but with the advent of Mine Host Aubrey, who saw the future possibilities of the place as a resort, it is fast coming to the front as "the place" on Oahu where every convenience of the modern hotel is found, where the best bathing beach on this island is located, where the best or equal to the best meals, of wholesome, home-cooked, home-raised products, are served, completely sheltered from winds, and surrounded by every home comfort, the guests of Hotel Aubrey experience that restfulness not found at any other spot on Oahu, and at a tax on one's purse that is exceedingly reasonable. Mr. Aubrey has recently put a large Hudson seven-seater auto into service for patrons desiring to make the trip over the Pail and along the windward side of the island, whereon is to be seen the most beautiful of Oahu's scenery.

The Aubrey Hotel auto leaves No. 75 Paunahi street every Saturday at 2 p. m., reaching Aubrey's hotel at Hauula at 4 p. m. There is ample time for a dip in old ocean before dinner, thereby putting a finishing touch to an appetite already made keen by the 30-mile ride from Honolulu via the Pail.

Those desiring to make the trip a sort of week-end affair will find the big seven-seater ready to resume the journey around the island via Haleiwa and Schofield Barracks, leaving Aubrey's hotel Sunday afternoon at about 2:15, its passengers well fortified for the fifty-mile ride with a well-cooked chicken dinner before starting. So one can leave Honolulu Saturday at 2, a swim, dinner, lodging, breakfast and lunch at Aubrey's resuming the journey the next day, back to Honolulu by the northern route, thereby encircling the island with a full day stopover and rest at one of the most picturesque spots on Oahu. There has been a very reasonable rate made for all this that can be ascertained by looking up the advertisement of Hotel Aubrey, or applying to Mr. A. C. Aubrey, at Hauula.

On account of the aforementioned really bad piece of road this charming ride by auto can only be indulged in, weather permitting.

In leaving Aubrey's hotel for the trip back to Honolulu via Haleiwa, the road for the first ten or twelve miles is fairly good. Then come a few miles of "not so smooth going," but not so bad but what the traveler has probably seen worse. From Haleiwa to Honolulu the road is all that anybody could desire, smooth as glass and hard as flint.

The trip to Aubrey's hotel at Hauula can also be made via the Oahu Railway and Land Company's trains, changing at Kahuku to the Koolau railway, the journey occupying over three hours. No matter what method of transportation you employ to get there, you will feel fully repaid for the effort.

PROF. SCOTT IS MEMBER OF PARTY FOR THE ORIENT

S. Sheba's Hawaiian Excursion to Japan Leaves Tomorrow in the Shinyo Maru

Through the decision of Professor and Mrs. M. M. Scott to once more visit the Orient, the passenger list for S. Sheba's Hawaiian excursion to Japan was complete this morning. Those who will make the trip are Rev. and Mrs. W. D. Westervelt and child, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Mott-Smith, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Scott, G. B. Isenberg, R. O. Matheson, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Westervelt, Miss Westervelt, Miss Summors and S. Sheba. The party will sail for Japan at 5 o'clock tomorrow evening on the Shinyo Maru, and will be absent from Honolulu about two months.

As the result of a decision reached at a recent meeting of the Japanese Merchants' Association, the local Japanese community will entertain the members of the party at a farewell reception at the Mochizuki Club this evening. It will be an informal affair and, besides the members of the party, Gov. L. E. Pinkham, W. O. Smith, F. C. Atherton and other prominent business and professional men have been invited to be in attendance.

Mr. Sheba announced this morning that all preparations for the trip have been completed. The itinerary has been arranged, and the members of the excursion are assured of a royal welcome in every Japanese city which is visited. Besides many other things of interest, the excursionists will have the opportunity to witness the annual cherry blossom festival and attend the great industrial exposition. The prominent cities of the empire will be visited, including the many points of interest which have attracted thousands of tourists.

For the past three months Mr. Sheba has been in communication with his agents in Tokio, who have looked after the Japan end of the arrangements. The various Japanese commercial clubs and chambers of commerce are preparing to welcome the visitors and the keys to Japan will be tendered the party upon its arrival at Yokohama.

GOOD SUGGESTION TO HONOLULU PEOPLE

It is surprising the amount of old foul matter the simple mixture of buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., known as Adler-1-ka, drains from the system. This remedy became famous by curing appendicitis and acts on BOTH the upper and lower bowel so thoroughly that ONE DOSE relieves sour stomach, gas on the stomach and constipation almost IMMEDIATELY. We are mighty glad we are Honolulu agents for Adler-1-ka. The Hollister Drug Company.—advertisement.
